Welcome to Church today!

Pastor James is our speaker this morning

"We're jumping right back into Luke this week and we'll meet three characters who cross paths with Jesus. Though each scenario is dramatically different and each character is facing very different issues, there is a common theme running throughout each. Each one is honest, real and authentic with Jesus - they are willing to admit where they are, what they're going through, and what they need. We've got a lot to learn from these people about how to be real with Jesus."

Evening: Taylor Gifford is preaching this evening and we thank him for being willing to help in this way. His subject is along the lines of :

What is "The Church" and how do we keep it from becoming a relic?

Save the date! The Big Lunch, Sunday 18th June

BRBC is participating in the national 'Big Lunch' initiative on Sunday 18th June, as part of the 'Great Get Together' weekend. On this day, communities around the country will be getting together with their neighbours to share lunch together, to build friendships and relationships within neighbourhoods. What better way for BRBC to begin to 'Reach' people from the local area than by getting together for food and conversation?

We will be holding our Big Lunch at 12.30pm, after morning church, on the grassy area next to the church building (or indoors if wet). Please could you all:

- Put the date in your diary!
- Think and pray about which neighbours, local friends or colleagues you could invite
- Tell Angus or Liz Barnard if you are able to help with the following:
 - o Delivering flyers or putting up posters around Rougham
 - o Providing food
 - o Helping out with practical arrangements on the day.

More information will follow soon!
