Welcome to Church today!

10.30am Morning meeting: Speaker: James Martin

James writes: "This morning we'll be looking at Luke 13:1-9. Yet again, we'll find Jesus compassionately and sternly giving us wake up call. Last week the call was about His return, but this week it's Jesus 'teaching about the fragility of life and need for repentance. We don't like being told we're not as invincible as we sometimes think we are, but you know as well as I do, we need to hear it and then live in light of it."

6.30pm Evening meeting: "Tonight, we'll have video sermon followed by communion together. In the message, Alistair Begg explores the need for self-control as we seek to live lives pleasing to our Lord. How can self-control become our "new normal"? As we depend on God's grace, we are enabled to live within boundaries He has established, motivated not by rules but by our love for Him."

(Cash, or cheques made payable to 'Peter Mason'). Thank you! Also, if you have any items of furniture that you think might be suitable for Peter and Emily's home, please email the details to admin@brbaptistchurch.info, so that we can compile a list and decide what is needed.
