David Quin from Asia Link is our speaker this morning

John chapter 21:1-14

www.asialink.org

“Jesus shows us the utter pointlessness of attempting to live the Christian life, or attempting to engage in the mission of the gospel, without Him”
This will be combined with a presentation of my recent visit to Bhutan.

“As a church, we will be giving to Asia Link today, but if you personally would like to give, then please visit the Asia Link website at www.asialink.org - it's really straight forward!”

Evening: Tom Hart is our speaker this evening – he has recently been attending BRBC along with his wife Rachel, and three children.
He writes about his subject as follows:

What is it like to be a believer and suffer from depression?
1 in 5 people in the UK will suffer from some sort of anxiety, stress or depression in their lifetime. So if we are going to love one another well, we need to understand something of how it feels.

Psalms 42-43 offer us a unique window into a believer who was depressed. Come and hear what his depression felt like and of the medicine he prescribes.

Men's Ministry: Theology on Tap

30 October, 7:30pm,
Oakes Barn Upper
Room, St Andrews
St South, BSE

“Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you.” Such a Christian thing to say is it not? How is it possible? Is this something to be taken literally, or was Jesus just going for the shock factor? Does it carry on for the Christian that heads off to war? And what of those who can't picture an "enemy" in their daily life? Invite a mate and join us for a pint and a lively discussion during this last Men@BRBC Theology on Tap of 2017.

We have been studying through Vaughan Roberts' "True Friendship" in our Community Groups, but this upcoming week we are all getting together and watching the film "Luther," setting the stage for a new sermon series on the Reformation this November. All community groups, as well as church attenders, are invited to come along at 7:15pm to the church to watch the film, with a bowl of popcorn and chat with friends. Come and enjoy the night and movie. Because we know time is valuable, we are starting the movie at 7:30pm promptly. Looking forward to seeing you there!

Sunday 12th November 4.30pm @ BRBC

Everyone is welcome!

Please bring a main or side dish + a dessert to share (or one thing if there is only one of you!) The oven can be used in the kitchen, so dishes can be hot or cold.
