WEEKLY NEWS

5th November 2017

Pastor James is our speaker
this morning

Earlier this week, churches all over the world celebrated the 500th anniversary of a key event in the Reformation - when Martin Luther, one of the leaders of the Reformation, took his stand and posted his 95 Theses in Wittenberg.

The Reformation was a spiritual awakening that swept across Europe, as people from all walks of life heard the Gospel loud and clear. This series will follow the footsteps of the Reformation; it'll be all about the rediscovery of the foundations of our faith. This morning, we'll begin with the doctrine of justification.

Evening: We are pleased to welcome Adam Blowes, Pastor of the Baptist Church at Horham, as our speaker this evening.

Genesis 41:37-57

Genesis 41 tells us about the part of Joseph's life that is so often viewed as the long awaited success; the moment in which he receives the glory, power, credit he is due after all the suffering he has had to endure. Yet when we begin to scratch the surface of this great chapter, we will see that perhaps success is not the best word to use to describe what takes place.
