Evening: Freedom for Freedom

Gal 5:1-15

How do you know what you know? Simple, take a test and find out. This morning we are continuing our series in 1 John, as John gives us the ultimate test in order to find out what we really know and love most in this world. He gives us the Test of Love - a test many of us think we will Ace, but as we will see, this test might not be as easy or simple as we thought. He is not after some abstract grades or achievements, but our assurance, peace and joy.

The gospel of Jesus Christ is the source of freedom for a Christian. But do we actually feel free? For many of us, we feel a constant pressure to perform, to do, to accomplish, and to earn. And we spend our lives trying to measure up, yet always seeming to fall short. This struggle has left us feeling tired, heavy, fearful, fake, guilty, and worn-down. If we're honest, some of us don't feel free at all. In the book of Galatians, Paul offers us a deep look into the freedom that Christ offers, in hopes that it might draw our hearts out of slavery back to where we belong.
