Gal 5:16-26

The promises of the gospel are fantastic - our sins are forgiven, we're welcomed into God's Big Family and we have the hope of eternal life in a redeemed universe. Wonderful! But it doesn't always feel that way. When there are so few of us and so many obstacles, how do we know we're going to make it? In this morning's Bible passage, the Apostle Peter gives us three tips for living in the light of eternity.

As we continue our study of Galatians Paul spells out to the churches in Galatia what attributes ought to mark out the lives of the believer if we have really embraced the freedom that Christ has purchased with his own sacrifice. This evening we will take a look at those attributes and behaviours but we will also consider how it is that we can succeed in putting to death the 'works of the flesh' and instead be those who 'bear good fruit'.
