Loving Jesus together and helping others
to do the same

TODAY

Morning: Striped, Spotted & Speckled
Speaker: James / Genesis 30:25-43

Evening: Kinsman Redeemer
Speaker: Matt Levett / Ruth 3:1-9

Last week we explored Rachel's hardship and learned how to respond when our plans don't work out. This week, we'll see the opposite. Jacob's plans do pan out, just as he intends. We'll see how he learns how to respond when things go our way. We'll ask ourselves, How should we respond when our plans work out?

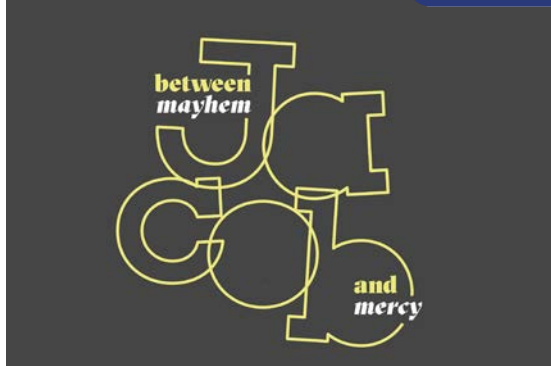

Today is Remembrance Sunday. A solemn respectful time when we remember the folly and sacrifice of war. 'Lest we Forget'. But remembering rightly is about more than setting aside one day a year to remind ourselves of the facts. Remembering rightly is actually about how we live in the light of those facts. Remembering the past should change our lives going forward. Tonight we're delving into the Book of Ruth to see a 'lest we forget' moment. When an ordinary man remembered, stood up, took responsibility and became Kinsman - Redeemer.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Bring-and-Share Meal

Bring & Share Meal

We are getting together in the beginning of December, before many of us travel to see family, to have another Bring & Share Meal as a whole church family! So come along on 9 Dec at 4:45pm, bring the kids and either a main dish or dessert + drink to share. Everyone is invited!

Kids, Craft, & Carols

Kids, Craft and Carols is one of our Christmas outreach events, with the aim of welcoming local families into the church to sing a few carols; do some craft; hear a short talk from James; and enjoy a tea together. It's a relaxed event, so great for people who wouldn't normally go to church. The event is on Sunday 16th December from 4-5.30pm. Please be thinking about friends / family / colleagues who you could invite along. Flyers will be available shortly. Volunteers will also be needed for baking, setting up and packing down, music and stewarding, so please sign up at the back of church if you can help out.
