TODAY

Morning: The Danger of Wealth
Speaker: Pastor Peter / Lk 18:18-27

Evening: Communion Service
Speakers: Church Members

Greed is an old forgotten word we reserve for bankers who own yachts, corrupt politicians, or footballer millionaires. Today in Luke's Gospel, Jesus encounters someone we'd all struggle to label "greedy," who asks a simple question: "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" - a humble and honest question any of us would love to be asked. This morning we are going to hear Jesus' unexpected response to this young man.

Tonight we have the privilege of taking communion together as a church family. Communion is a means of remembering and participating in Jesus life, death, resurrection and ascension. Alongside music and communion itself, we are also going to be hearing stories from 3 church members on how God has been working in their lives this past year, and how they've come to see His grace and presence as they look back in remembrance.

If you'd like more information regarding the church finances, please email or speak to Ben Greeves (Deacon of Finances): finance@brbc.org.uk

OnGoal Volunteers Needed

In just over two weeks, our OnGoal football camp will be kicking off. We are still looking for people to serve that week. On the pew racks, there are small postcards which detail various ways you can get involved. Please have a look and if you can help, fill it in, and place it in the offering bag or donations boxes on the main hall doors.

Connect Cards

If you'd like to hear about church events and updates by email, get more involved in community groups, teams or hear more about BRBC, please fill out a connect card in the pew racks and place it in the offering bag during the service.

FEAST

Feast is a group that meets one Saturday evening per month as an opportunity for teenagers and young people to be together outside of the usual church surroundings and explore more about Christianity. There is prayer time, study, discussion, and, of course, food! FEAST is on 6th April at 7:30pm at the Martin's home. For more info, email Bryan Hassler (bryan.hassler@brbc.org.uk).

Community Groups

Community groups are meeting this week on their respective nights. They are a place where all different church attenders gather together in each other's homes to read through the Bible, discuss and ask questions about the sermon and study, pray for one another, and get to know each other as friends. All of our groups meet at on either a Tuesday or a Thursday evening 3x a month. If you'd like more info or to sign up to a group, please fill in a connect card. This week all groups will be starting a new study called "Fruitfulness on the Frontline" which helps us think how our faith can transform our daily work / routine / vocation.
