We are loving Jesus together and helping others
to do the same

TODAY

Morning: Hurting, Honest and Hopeful
Speaker: Pastor James / Ruth 1:19-22

Evening: Unmistakable Love
Speaker: Ben Kolmer

We're shifting our focus from the character of Ruth to Naomi, the one who hurts the most in this story. This morning we'll see Naomi returning to her home town and feeling the heavy weight of her grief and loss. While we may not face the exact suffering Naomi does, we certainly will face incredibly hard times and likewise, find ourselves in the pit of bitter circumstances. But what does Naomi do with her pain? If we can see how Naomi goes through her bitter circumstances then we can find help to respond and look to the same places as she does.

Love is a core theme throughout scripture and is central to the good news of our salvation in Christ. Tonight, as we continue in our series in 1 Peter, we will find Peter using a masterful blending of Old and New Testament theology, poetry, and practical advice to describe the unmistakable love made possible through our adoption into the family of God. So join us as we explore how the Word of God has the power to change the way we relate to one another and why we should let it do so.
